Attn: Kai D. Patterson, CEO and President

Dear Mr. Patterson:

This will confirm that I am holding a fully executed copy by all parties of the Project Child Support Television Production and Distribution Agreement that provides that, subject to its terms and conditions, Kai Patterson ("you"), and Project Child Support will be paid $65,520,000 over five years.

The agreement provides that Project Child Support may receive additional earnings for ratings increases and will retain ownership of the series after it airs. The agreement also provides that Project Child Support has the right to redistribute and syndicate the series both nationally and internationally as it will own all of the rights to each episode of the series. I have also received a Clarification Addendum to the agreement from the production and distribution company that confirms the series cannot be cancelled by the television network.

Very truly yours,
